

I met George by chance. My feeling conveyed a message to me via conversation, we can do something together. Through contacts, George was a person of delicate, humorous, polite, flexible thinking. I felt comfortable with him. He was always fast responding whenever I raised my concerns in the process of deal. George always selflessly contributed his experience and ideas to share with me, support me. Without George's assistance, I couldn't succeed. Thanks George with my heart to secure a favorable site for me. It is worthwhile to put trust on his shoulders. I am more happy to do more deals with him.
